However, in case candidate is unable to be present in the counselling in person due to unavoidable circumstances, then he/she may authorize any person to represent him/her alongwith his/her original educational/ academic and other supporting documents for verification.

7.2.6. After the verification of documents and after issuance of NOC by the Director Health Services, the AMRU shall allot the post of Senior Resident/ Tutor Specialist in order of merit-cum-choice in the concerned specialty/ department in the respective Medical College/Institution.

7.2.7. The AMRU shall forward the result/selection list alongwith waiting panel to the DME&R-HP within one week after completion of selection/ counselling process (in confidential manner). The DME&R-HP shall work out the entire result/ selection list of the college/ institution and recommend the names of selected candidates to the Government for appointment to the post of Senior Resident/ Tutor Specialist; and on the basis of approval conveyed by the Government, the DME&R-HP will issue appointment orders in this regard accordingly.

7.3. Terms and conditions:

7.3.1. The appointment will be ordinarily for a period of three years subject to satisfactory yearly performance appraisals which shall be brought to the notice of the Principal by the concerned Head of Department (HOD). The Principal shall intimate the Government through DME&R-HP if the services of a Senior Resident/ Tutor Specialist need to be discontinued in view of non-satisfactory performance. The post occupied by the Senior Resident/ Tutor Specialist will fall vacant only if the tenure is completed OR he/she tenders resignation OR his/her services are terminated.

7.3.2. The GDOs shall continue to draw pay admissible to him/her with due allowances and increments during the period of Senior Residency. The direct candidates including GDO (contract) who join as Senior Resident/ Tutor Specialist in all the Government Medical Colleges/ Institutions as per this policy shall be eligible to draw the stipend as fixed for Senior Resident/ Tutor Specialist by the Government.

7.3.3. The salary of Senior Resident/ Tutor Specialist shall be drawn against the sanctioned post of Senior Resident/ Tutor Specialist in that Government Medical College/ Institution. However, the GDOs selected for Senior Residency will furnish their 'Last Pay Certificate' (LPC) duly issued by their last establishment for the purpose of drawing salary against the post of Senior Resident/ Tutor Specialist.

7.3.4. The Senior Residents/ Tutor Specialists shall be entitled to leave as may be notified by the Government vide notification No. Health-B(15)-1/97-Loose dated 04-12-2009 and its subsequent amendments or any other notifications notified in its supersession from time to time.

7.3.5. The candidates posted as Medical Officer/ Medical Officer (Specialist) in Government Medical Colleges and AIMSS Chamiana (Shimla) shall not be clubbed with Senior Residents/ Tutor Specialists for the purpose of roster etc. and it shall be ensured by the Principal concerned that no teaching responsibility is assigned to them. Such candidates shall also not be eligible for the grant of "teaching experience". However, the grant of teaching experience as Senior Resident/ Tutor Specialist to any candidate shall be strictly governed in accordance with the provisions outlined under Clause 7.5, titled "Teaching Experience".

7.3.6. Under this policy, those Medical Officers/ direct candidates after completion of their Post Graduation posted in new Government Medical Colleges/ institutions against the vacant posts of Senior Resident/ Tutor Specialist may be clubbed with Senior Resident/ Tutor Specialist; however, this period shall not be counted for "teaching experience"; but shall be counted for one year mandatory peripheral service.

7.3.7. For the purpose of field posting under this policy, the post of Casualty Medical Officers in Medical Colleges/ Institutions shall not be included as field posting. Provided further that the service rendered in the offices of Chief Medical Officer, National Health Mission, Directorate of Health Services and State Health & Family Welfare Training Institutions at Parimahal & Cheb (District Kangra) shall be counted for the purpose of field posting.

7.4. Repeat Tenure:

7.4.1. There will be no repeat tenure for any candidate as Senior Resident/ Tutor Specialist in any specialty in a particular Government Medical College/

Institution. However, candidate shall be allowed to repeat only one more tenure of Senior Residency for three years in his/her concerned speciality/ department /super-speciality in any of the other Government Medical College/ Institution.

7.5. Teaching Experience:

7.5.1. Senior Residents/ Tutor Specialists will be issued "teaching experience certificate" by the concerned Principal, which will be valid for considering promotion/ appointment as Assistant Professor in the respective speciality as per R&P Rules notified by the Government from time to time.

7.5.2. Senior Residents/ Tutor Specialists who are pursuing Senior Residency in Super-specialty departments of the Government Medical Colleges/ Institutions of the State shall be eligible to be awarded teaching experience in their own specialty; provided that the concerned specialty is the parent department of concerned Super-specialty.

7.5.3. The candidates who have availed maternity/ paternity leave during the period of Senior Residency shall be entitled to grant of teaching experience for the period of maternity/paternity leave admissible as per rules.

7.5.4. Only those candidates shall be granted "teaching experience" who are appointed/ selected under the Senior Resident/ Resident Doctor Policy notified by the Government from time to time. Besides teaching experience of any designated period served as Senior Residents/ Tutor Specialist shall not be clubbed with teaching experience to be availed under this policy for all intents and purposes.

7.6. Inter-transferability:

7.6.1. No Senior Resident/ Tutor Specialist in any institution of the State will be allowed to shift to any other institution without formal resignation from the former institution.

7.6.2. However, instances where inter-transferability is sought on couple case grounds may be given consideration subject to availability of departmental vacancy of Senior Resident/ Tutor Specialist in the institution to which transfer is being sought:

Provided further that the inter-transferability shall not be applicable after issuance of advertisement/ against the advertised post till the appointment of Senior Resident/ Tutor Specialist afresh:

Provided further that the Senior Resident/ Tutor Specialist shall not inter-transferable from new Government Medical College/ Institution to IGMC Shimla and Dr. RPGMC Tanda who have not completed one year mandatory field posting as per provisions of the policy.

Provided further that the Senior Resident/ Tutor Specialist of IGMC Shimla and Dr. RPGMC Tanda may be considered for inter-transferability to new Government Medical Colleges/ Institution subject to availability of departmental vacancy of Senior Resident/ Tutor Specialist in the institution to which transfer is being sought.

7.6.3. No other exception will be made to clause 7.6.1. However, the State Government reserves the right to transfer/ depute a Senior Resident/Tutor Specialist from one Government Medical College/Institution to another, if the administrative exigencies demand so.

8. Junior Residents/Tutor General:

8.1. Eligibility:

Direct candidates and those regularly appointed GDOs who possess a MBBS Degree as recognized by NMC will be eligible for the post of Junior Resident/ Tutor General against sanctioned posts. These posts will not be offered to any Post Graduate doctor/contractual GDOs.

8.2. Method of Selection:

8.2.1. These posts will be filled up by the Principal of concerned Government Medical College/ institution through walk-in-interviews by prior notification of vacancies and inviting applications for the same.

8.2.2. Walk-in-interviews for these posts shall also be conducted thrice a year as prescribed for the post of Senior Resident/ Tutor Specialist.

8.2.3. The applications received will be considered as per the following criteria:

(a) The selection will be made purely on the basis of merit of candidate in MBBS examinations. First preference would be given to the direct MBBS doctors who are not in the employment of the Government of Himachal Pradesh.

(b) Second preference would be given to GDOs whose spouses are working, in order of preference, as Senior Resident/Tutor Specialist or Faculty in the respective Government Medical College/Institution or in the State/ Central Government (including semi-government/ autonomous bodies fully or partially funded by the Government). In case there is more than one applicant for particular position, the applicant having higher score in MBBS examination will be selected.

8.2.4. For the smooth conduct of patient care services, if any post of Senior Resident/Tutor Specialist in any clinical specialty remains vacant despite advertisement in the last round of recruitment by the AMRU and recruitment of manpower against that post is absolutely necessary in public interest, the Principal of the concerned Government Medical College/ Institution may fill up the post by way of Junior Resident/ Tutor General through walk-in-interview subject to fulfilment of following conditions:

(a) The Principal shall seek prior permission of DME&R-HP for advertising these posts of Senior Resident/ Tutor Specialist against which a Junior Resident/ Tutor General is proposed to be recruited. The DME&R-HP shall accord permission for the same only if the said post was advertised previously but no suitable candidate could be recruited against that post.

(b) Such Junior Residents/ Tutor Generals shall be appointed for a term of maximum of six months or till the post is filled up by Senior Resident/ Tutor Specialist. Provided further that no extension for continuing as Junior Resident/ Tutor General in such cases shall be granted.

(c) Such Junior Resident/ Tutor General shall be payable pay and allowances as prescribed for the post of Junior Resident/ Tutor General not for the post of Senior Resident/ Tutor Specialist.

8.2.5. The Principal of concerned Government Medical College/ Institution shall forwarded the proposal for appointment of Junior Residents/ Tutor General to the Government through the DME&R-HP for approval and on the basis of approval conveyed by the Government, the DME&R-HP will issue appointment orders in this regard accordingly.

8.3 Terms and conditions:

8.3.1. Junior Resident/ Tutor General who will be appointed against sanctioned post for a term of one year at a time. Extension beyond one year will only be allowed in exceptional cases and with the prior concurrence of the State Government.

8.3.2. GDOs appointed on regular basis, on their selection as Junior Resident/ Tutor General will continue to draw pay and allowances/ increments as admissible to them in their pay scale. MBBS doctors appointed in the direct category will get emoluments as may be prescribed from time to time by the State Government.

9. Removal/ Resignation from post of Senior Resident/ Tutor Specialist or Junior Resident/ Tutor General:

9.1. Once appointed, the incumbent can be removed from the post any time after joining in case of misconduct, misbehaviour, acts of commission/ omission, unbecoming of a public servant. The HOD will make a formal request in writing to the Principal of the concerned Government Medical College/Institution for removing the delinquent appointee. The Principal of the concerned Government Medical College/Institution will take decision in the matter after hearing both the parties. It will be necessary to give due opportunity to the concerned Senior Resident/Tutor Specialist and Junior Resident/Tutor General to explain his/her position. The Principal shall forward his/her recommendations to the DME&R-HP, and the final decision shall be taken by the DME&R-HP being an appointing authority.

9.2. Similarly, if the performance is non-satisfactory as reported by the Head of Department during annual performance appraisals, the Principal shall hear the parties and forward the case to the DME&R-HP for discontinuation of services, if so required, along with his/her findings and recommendations.

9.3. Any Senior Resident/ Tutor Specialist or Junior Resident/ Tutor General shall have to give one month's notice or salary in lieu thereof to resign and the concerned Principal will accept the same.

9.4. The selected Senior Resident/Tutor Specialist or Junior Resident/ Tutor General on their selection the respective tenured posts shall submit an undertaking in shape of affidavit that they shall not claim for regularization against the post which they are appointed.

10. Reservation:

The reservation roster shall be applied for all sanctioned posts of Senior Resident/ Tutor Specialist as per rules applicable in the State of Himachal Pradesh. However, if candidates of reserved category are not available in any category, then the post will be filled up from General category. Provided further that the reservation roster shall be maintained combined & fresh strictly in fair and transparent manner by the AMRU for the Cadre of DME&R-HP.

12. Power to relax/change/amend the policy:

Where the State Government is of the opinion that it is necessary or expedient to do so, it may, for reasons to be recorded in writing relax/change/amend any of the provision(s) of this policy.

By order,

Sd/-
(M. SUDHA DEVI),
Secretary (Health).
